This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. I. Purpose

The Morrison County Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA) has adopted this policy in compliance with the “Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005” (“VAWA” or “the Act”, P.L. 109-162), a federal law that provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. The HRA will comply with all applicable provisions of VAWA. This summary of VAWA protections is not intended to limit the rights of victims provided by the Act.

The HRA notes and supports the statements of Congressional purpose set forth in VAWA including those listed below (paraphrased from the statute).

The purpose of this subtitle (Title VI, Housing Opportunities and Safety for Battered Women and Children) is to

- Reduce domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking; and protect victims of such criminal acts;
- Prevent homelessness caused by domestic violence;

- Create long-term housing solutions for victims of domestic violence;
- Build collaborations among victim service providers, homeless service providers, housing providers and housing agencies to address the housing needs of victims of domestic violence; and
- Enable public and assisted housing agencies, private landlords, private management companies and other housing providers and agencies to respond appropriately to domestic violence, while maintaining a safe environment for all housing residents.

II. Protection of Victims

- A. For the purpose of this policy, the term “domestic violence” encompasses acts or threats of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, as those terms are defined in VAWA.
- B. VAWA protects qualified applicants or tenants and family members of applicants or tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being denied, evicted or terminated from housing assistance based solely on criminal acts of domestic violence against them. Criminal acts of domestic violence shall not be considered “serious or repeated lease violations” by the victim or “criminal activity” by the victim that is grounds for termination of the lease or of housing assistance.
- C. VAWA protections are available to both applicants for and recipients of housing assistance through the Public Housing program and Section 8 rent assistance programs, including tenant-based Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV) and Project-Based Vouchers (PBV).
- D. VAWA protects both women and men who are victims of domestic violence.
- E. The protections provided by VAWA and this policy are to be observed and enforced by all HRA staff, individuals and agencies contracting with the HRA, and property owners participating in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher or Project-Based Voucher programs.
- F. VAWA does not limit the authority of the HRA or a property owner or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

III. Certification

- A. HRA May Request Certification. If an applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant claims protection under VAWA against denial of an application, termination of tenancy or assistance, or other adverse action, the HRA may require the person who claims the VAWA protections to deliver a signed certification or other documentation concerning the incident or incidents. If the person does not deliver this certification within the time allowed, he or she will lose the legal protections under VAWA.

- B. Acceptable Forms of Certification. There are three ways to comply with a certification request by the HRA:
- i. Complete a certification form approved by HUD (Form HUD-50066 or other approved form);
 - ii. Provide a police report or court record;
 - iii. Provide a document signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.
- C. Self-Certification; Request for Additional Information. The HRA may accept self-certification by the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA. If the HRA has reason to believe the information provided in the certification is inaccurate or incomplete in material respects, the HRA may request additional information, also certified or attested.
- D. Perjury. The certification must state that the victim and any other person signing it or providing documentation are doing so under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746).
- E. Time limit. The applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant must deliver the certification in one of these three ways within 14 business days after receiving the housing authority's request for certification.

IV. Confidentiality

Information provided by an applicant, resident or participant about an incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking involving that person or a member of the household will be held by the HRA in confidence and not shared without the consent of the person who provided the information, except that this information may be disclosed in an eviction proceeding or otherwise as necessary to meet the requirements of law.

- V. Notices. The HRA will provide notices explaining the VAWA protections to applicants for housing assistance (both Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers and Public Housing), to public housing residents and Section 8 voucher participants, and to property owners participating in the voucher program.

- VI. Leases; Bifurcation of Leases: As required by VAWA, the public housing lease and the Section 8 lease addendum shall provide that the HRA or a property owner may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others.

The HRA will revise the public housing lease to include provisions required by VAWA.

For the interim period before the new lease can be signed by all tenants, the HRA will provide a lease addendum applicable to all leases. In the Section 8 HCV and PBV programs the HRA will require a new lease addendum, provided by HUD.

VII. Rights of HRA and Property Owners to Evict or Terminate Assistance

- A. Eviction for reasons other than domestic violence. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to deny or terminate housing assistance to a victim of domestic violence for reasons other than the criminal activity related to the domestic violence, provided that no higher standard is applied.
- B. Failure to Submit Certification After Request by HRA. If the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA fails to deliver the certification or other documentation within 14 business days after receiving the HRA's request, that person loses the legal protections under VAWA.
- C. Imminent and Actual Threat. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to evict or terminate from assistance any tenant or household member if the HRA or the owner or manager can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

VIII. POLICY DISTRIBUTION AND TRAINING

This Policy will be included in the Admissions and Occupancy Plan for the Public Housing Program and in the Administrative Plan for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. It will also be:

1. Distributed to all HRA supervisors.
2. Available in the HRA Management Offices.
3. Explained in orientation and training sessions for supervisors and other staff who have regular contact with applicants, public housing residents or Section 8 voucher participants.

IX. Purpose

The Morrison County Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA) has adopted this policy in compliance with the "Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005" ("VAWA" or "the Act", P.L. 109-162), a federal law that provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. The HRA will comply with all applicable provisions of VAWA. This summary of VAWA protections is not intended to limit the rights of victims provided by the Act.

The HRA notes and supports the statements of Congressional purpose set forth in VAWA including those listed below (paraphrased from the statute).

The purpose of this subtitle (Title VI, Housing Opportunities and Safety for Battered Women and Children) is to

- Reduce domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking; and protect victims of such criminal acts;
- Prevent homelessness caused by domestic violence;
- Create long-term housing solutions for victims of domestic violence;
- Build collaborations among victim service providers, homeless service providers, housing providers and housing agencies to address the housing needs of victims of domestic violence; and
- Enable public and assisted housing agencies, private landlords, private management companies and other housing providers and agencies to respond appropriately to domestic violence, while maintaining a safe environment for all housing residents.

X. Protection of Victims

- A. For the purpose of this policy, the term “domestic violence” encompasses acts or threats of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, as those terms are defined in VAWA.
- B. VAWA protects qualified applicants or tenants and family members of applicants or tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being denied, evicted or terminated from housing assistance based solely on criminal acts of domestic violence against them. Criminal acts of domestic violence shall not be considered “serious or repeated lease violations” by the victim or “criminal activity” by the victim that is grounds for termination of the lease or of housing assistance.
- C. VAWA protections are available to both applicants for and recipients of housing assistance through the Public Housing program and Section 8 rent assistance programs, including tenant-based Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV) and Project-Based Vouchers (PBV).
- D. VAWA protects both women and men who are victims of domestic violence.
- E. The protections provided by VAWA and this policy are to be observed and enforced by all HRA staff, individuals and agencies contracting with the HRA, and property owners participating in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher or Project-Based Voucher programs.
- F. VAWA does not limit the authority of the HRA or a property owner or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

XI. Certification

- A. HRA May Request Certification. If an applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant claims protection under VAWA against denial of an application, termination of tenancy or assistance, or other adverse action, the HRA may require the person who claims the VAWA protections to deliver a signed certification or other documentation concerning the incident or incidents. If the person does not deliver this certification within the time allowed, he or she will lose the legal protections under VAWA.
- B. Acceptable Forms of Certification. There are three ways to comply with a certification request by the HRA:
- i. Complete a certification form approved by HUD (Form HUD-50066 or other approved form);
 - ii. Provide a police report or court record;
 - iii. Provide a document signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.
- C. Self-Certification; Request for Additional Information. The HRA may accept self-certification by the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA. If the HRA has reason to believe the information provided in the certification is inaccurate or incomplete in material respects, the HRA may request additional information, also certified or attested.
- D. Perjury. The certification must state that the victim and any other person signing it or providing documentation are doing so under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746).
- E. Time limit. The applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant must deliver the certification in one of these three ways within 14 business days after receiving the housing authority's request for certification.

XII. Confidentiality

Information provided by an applicant, resident or participant about an incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking involving that person or a member of the household will be held by the HRA in confidence and not shared without the consent of the person who provided the information, except that this information may be disclosed in an eviction proceeding or otherwise as necessary to meet the requirements of law.

XIII. Notices. The HRA will provide notices explaining the VAWA protections to applicants for housing assistance (both Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers and Public Housing), to public housing residents and Section 8 voucher participants, and to property owners participating in the voucher program.

XIV. Leases; Bifurcation of Leases: As required by VAWA, the public housing lease and the Section 8 lease addendum shall provide that the HRA or a property owner may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others.

The HRA will revise the public housing lease to include provisions required by VAWA. For the interim period before the new lease can be signed by all tenants, the HRA will provide a lease addendum applicable to all leases. In the Section 8 HCV and PBV programs the HRA will require a new lease addendum, provided by HUD.

XV. Rights of HRA and Property Owners to Evict or Terminate Assistance

- A. Eviction for reasons other than domestic violence. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to deny or terminate housing assistance to a victim of domestic violence for reasons other than the criminal activity related to the domestic violence, provided that no higher standard is applied.
- B. Failure to Submit Certification After Request by HRA. If the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA fails to deliver the certification or other documentation within 14 business days after receiving the HRA's request, that person loses the legal protections under VAWA.
- C. Imminent and Actual Threat. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to evict or terminate from assistance any tenant or household member if the HRA or the owner or manager can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

XVI. POLICY DISTRIBUTION AND TRAINING

This Policy will be included in the Admissions and Occupancy Plan for the Public Housing Program and in the Administrative Plan for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. It will also be:

- 2. Distributed to all HRA supervisors.
- 4. Available in the HRA Management Offices.

The Morrison County Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA) has adopted this policy in compliance with the "Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005" ("VAWA" or "the Act", P.L. 109-162), a federal law that provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. The HRA will comply with all applicable provisions of VAWA. This summary of VAWA protections is not intended to limit the rights of victims provided by the Act.

The HRA notes and supports the statements of Congressional purpose set forth in VAWA including those listed below (paraphrased from the statute).

The purpose of this subtitle (Title VI, Housing Opportunities and Safety for Battered Women and Children) is to

- Reduce domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking; and protect victims of such criminal acts;
- Prevent homelessness caused by domestic violence;
- Create long-term housing solutions for victims of domestic violence;

- Build collaborations among victim service providers, homeless service providers, housing providers and housing agencies to address the housing needs of victims of domestic violence; and
- Enable public and assisted housing agencies, private landlords, private management companies and other housing providers and agencies to respond appropriately to domestic violence, while maintaining a safe environment for all housing residents.

XVII. Protection of Victims

- A. For the purpose of this policy, the term “domestic violence” encompasses acts or threats of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, as those terms are defined in VAWA.
- B. VAWA protects qualified applicants or tenants and family members of applicants or tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being denied, evicted or terminated from housing assistance based solely on criminal acts of domestic violence against them. Criminal acts of domestic violence shall not be considered “serious or repeated lease violations” by the victim or “criminal activity” by the victim that is grounds for termination of the lease or of housing assistance.
- C. VAWA protections are available to both applicants for and recipients of housing assistance through the Public Housing program and Section 8 rent assistance programs, including tenant-based Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV) and Project-Based Vouchers (PBV).
- D. VAWA protects both women and men who are victims of domestic violence.
- E. The protections provided by VAWA and this policy are to be observed and enforced by all HRA staff, individuals and agencies contracting with the HRA, and property owners participating in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher or Project-Based Voucher programs.
- F. VAWA does not limit the authority of the HRA or a property owner or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

XVIII. Certification

- A. HRA May Request Certification. If an applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant claims protection under VAWA against denial of an application, termination of tenancy or assistance, or other adverse action, the HRA may require the person who claims the VAWA protections to deliver a signed certification or other documentation concerning the incident or incidents. If the person does not deliver this certification within the time allowed, he or she will lose the legal protections under VAWA.

- B. Acceptable Forms of Certification. There are three ways to comply with a certification request by the HRA:
- i. Complete a certification form approved by HUD (Form HUD-50066 or other approved form);
 - ii. Provide a police report or court record;
 - iii. Provide a document signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.
- C. Self-Certification; Request for Additional Information. The HRA may accept self-certification by the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA. If the HRA has reason to believe the information provided in the certification is inaccurate or incomplete in material respects, the HRA may request additional information, also certified or attested.
- D. Perjury. The certification must state that the victim and any other person signing it or providing documentation are doing so under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746).
- E. Time limit. The applicant, public housing resident or voucher participant must deliver the certification in one of these three ways within 14 business days after receiving the housing authority's request for certification.

XIX. Confidentiality

Information provided by an applicant, resident or participant about an incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking involving that person or a member of the household will be held by the HRA in confidence and not shared without the consent of the person who provided the information, except that this information may be disclosed in an eviction proceeding or otherwise as necessary to meet the requirements of law.

XX. Notices. The HRA will provide notices explaining the VAWA protections to applicants for housing assistance (both Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers and Public Housing), to public housing residents and Section 8 voucher participants, and to property owners participating in the voucher program.

XXI. Leases; Bifurcation of Leases: As required by VAWA, the public housing lease and the Section 8 lease addendum shall provide that the HRA or a property owner may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others.

The HRA will revise the public housing lease to include provisions required by VAWA. For the interim period before the new lease can be signed by all tenants, the HRA will provide a lease addendum applicable to all leases. In the Section 8 HCV and PBV programs the HRA will require a new lease addendum, provided by HUD.

XXII. Rights of HRA and Property Owners to Evict or Terminate Assistance

- A. Eviction for reasons other than domestic violence. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to deny or terminate housing assistance to a victim of domestic violence for reasons other than the criminal activity related to the domestic violence, provided that no higher standard is applied.
- B. Failure to Submit Certification After Request by HRA. If the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA fails to deliver the certification or other documentation within 14 business days after receiving the HRA's request, that person loses the legal protections under VAWA.
- C. Imminent and Actual Threat. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA and property owners to evict or terminate from assistance any tenant or household member if the HRA or the owner or manager can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

XXIII. POLICY DISTRIBUTION AND TRAINING

This Policy will be included in the Admissions and Occupancy Plan for the Public Housing Program and in the Administrative Plan for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. It will also be:

- 3. Distributed to all HRA supervisors.
- 6. Available in the HRA Management Offices.
- 7. Explained in orientation and training sessions for supervisors and other staff who have regular contact with applicants, public housing residents or Section 8 voucher participants.
